Aaron - my supervisor is participating in a discussion next week on how USC interacts with innovation districts and other leading lo local organizations like BIDS. Can you tell me how much generally USC pays to fig bid every year? It doesn't have to be exact, just a ball park.. If you can send me by end of day or tomorrow morning, that would be great.

David,

It's approximatley $350K annually.

Thanks,
Aaron
